

YOKAYO WINE COMPANY

About Yokayo Wines

In 2006 the Pauli Family acquired a vineyard adjoining the Yokayo Ranch in the north west corner of the Ukiah Valley. In 2007 they built Yokayo Wine Company Winery and established the Yokayo brand.

With the inception of the Yokayo brand, the Pauli Family have been producing premium wines from their vineyards.

We hope you have an opportunity to taste and enjoy our Yokayo wines!

2019 Sauvignon Blanc

- Blend: 100% Sauvignon Blanc
- Winemaker: David Rosenthal
- Appellation: Potter Valley, Mendocino Co
- Harvest Date: Sept. 15th, 2019
- Harvest Analysis: 22.1 Brix, TA: .82, PH: 3.25
- Barrel Aging: 100% fermented in stainless steel tanks at 50°F.
- Alcohol: 13.9%
- Retail Price: $18.00

Winemaker Notes

This wine is crafted from 100% Sauvignon Blanc grown in Yolo Gravelly Loam on the valley floor at 950 ft elevation in Potter Valley, Mendocino County. On the nose, a brightness of citrus and gooseberry. The wine bursts on the palate with tropical fruit flavors and a crisp stonefruit finish.

This wine pairs well with fresh fruit and cheese, spicy Asian cuisine or shrimp scampi.